The Honorable Ron Wyden
Chairman
Senate Finance Committee

The Honorable Jason Smith
Chairman
House Ways and Means Committee

Dear Chairman Wyden and Chairman Smith:

The undersigned 88 leading national and statewide affordable housing and community development organizations strongly support the investment in critically needed affordable housing supply in the bipartisan, bicameral Tax Relief for American Families and Workers Act you jointly released on January 16 and urge you to work with Senate and House leadership to enact this legislation with the housing provisions included as soon as possible.

America has been in the midst of a housing crisis for a long time, but never has it been more acute than it is now, particularly for low-income families, seniors on fixed incomes, people with disabilities and other vulnerable populations. Since the Great Recession, our nation has drastically under-built rental housing, while at the same time the population of renters has grown significantly. According to the Joint Center for Housing Studies at Harvard University, the number of renter households grew by 1.1 million to 44.2 million just in the time between early 2020 and early 2022. We are currently seeing the repercussions of this extreme mismatch between supply and demand, with critically low vacancy rates and rents that in recent years have grown far faster than incomes.

The housing proposal you have put on the table builds on what we know works: the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (Housing Credit) program. For nearly 40 years, the Housing Credit has been our nation's most essential housing production program, relying on a public-private partnership model that transfers risk away from the taxpayer to the private sector.

The standalone legislation that inspired the housing provisions in your proposal, the Affordable Housing Credit Improvement Act (S.1557 / H.R. 3238), Sponsored by Senators Maria Cantwell (D-WA), Todd Young (R-IN), Ron Wyden (D-OR), and Marsha Blackburn (R-TN) in the Senate and Representatives Darin LaHood (R-IL), Suzan DelBene (D-WA), Brad Wenstrup (R-OH), Don Beyer (D-VA), Claudia Tenney (R-NY), and Jimmy Panetta (D-CA) in the House has the support of nearly half of Congress. What's more, that support is evenly divided between Republicans and Democrats in both chambers.

Your proposal would result in the production and preservation of over 200,000 additional rental homes for low-income households. While this investment alone does not solve the housing crisis, it is a huge step in the right direction at a time when these resources are desperately needed. The demand and the capacity are there, with shovel-ready, would-be housing developments just waiting for these resources.

We thank you for your leadership and urge you to be steadfast in your support for these affordable housing resources as Congress considers the deal you have struck.

Sincerely,
