

Contact: Kayla Bennett

(703) 752-8899

KBennett@NFI.org

National Fisheries Institute Statement on the OB BB Act

Reston, VA – June 27, 2025 – The National Fisheries Institute is pleased to see policymakers advancing the One Big Beautiful Bill Act—a positive step toward boosting economic growth nationwide. The competitive tax environment created by this package will help families and businesses throughout the seafood industry continue investing in good jobs and delivering healthy, delicious seafood to all Americans. We encourage Congress to pass this important legislation without delay.

Lisa Wallenda Picard
President & CEO